BREED THEATRE.

The Silent Woman, a story of the great Northwest is the latest of the forceful Metro plays in which Edith Story, the great dramatic star will be seen. This picture will be shown at the Breed theatre toda, and Thurstley with a cast of sume ting players of corresponding promonence. The street play was adapted from the story written by Lois Zellner and an directed by the noted Frenchman, Herbert Blanche. It is a tay which tites Miss Storey full stape for her holed emotional powers and the romance which runs through the plot furnishes a delightful went of sentiment which is beautifully brought out to this clever player.

Her Blighted Love a two-part Mack Senact comedy featuring Charles Murray and Wayund Trask will also be shown and the famous barton Holmes Travel series will complete the bill for today and Thursday.

Monday evening, about 8 o'clock, Monday evening, about 8 o'clock, a runeway horse owned and driven by John Casey of West Town street, crashed into the delivery automobile of George Hathaway, when in front of the residence of Jonathan Smith on Town street. Thomas Doyle, the driver for My. Hathaway, with his wife and two small chaldren, had Just allighted from the car and Mr. Smith alighted from the car and Mr Smith was about to fill the tank with gaso-line when the accident happened. Mr. issy was thrown out and the huggy was thrown out and the huggy was demolished. The automobile which was on the right side headed foward the city with all lights on, received a broken windshield and a smashed modernard. Monday was an unlucky day for Mr. Doyle, as about soon one of the front wheels came off the automobile, on Town street, in about the same location.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS WOMAN'S NERVES Back With His Company.

Letters recently received by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Robinson from their son, Winton, tell of his return to his company after seven weeks spent in a hospital in Nantes, France, where he went for treatment for his eyes. In a letter written Sept. 26 he says:

"I came back to the company on the 23d, just after the big drive our company were in. We are in a deep wood but I think we are to move on soon. No mail reached me for saven weeks.

No mail reached me for seven weeks, but twenty letters came the 25th and ten more today." In a later letter he writes: "We have been on the move during the three nights, moving forward course. Things look bright for us i raise the standard of their utmost to raise the standard of musical comedy to the heights where it beings.

The Bob Ott Musical Comedy company is now at the Auditorium and is the most successful attraction in America. Why?

See Things look oright for us it we can believe all we hear we would be a wild bunch. Just now we are on top of a high hill with dugouts large enough for eight or nine nundered men. Because, he gets box effice results: because his plays are he ter, funder than all the others. The critics throughour the country claim that his productions are more original and better than most of the New York musical comedy successes.

One critic says: Bob Cit's Monday offering, "Ask Dad, He Knows," contains more laughe, situations, and funny lines than "Oh Boy!" and "Love O'Mike" put together. This organization has advanced so raindly that today it has cut-distanced all competitions—in fact it can be safely said, it is now without competition. Extra attraction today, Charlie Chaplin.
